Hello everyone. Welcome to our fifth issue of Yahweh’s Vineyard Assembly’s newsletter. We pray it will honor our Father Yahweh and His Son our Gracious Savior Yahshua the Messiah who gave up his life for us.

We have been so Blessed that we can carry on the mission, to spread the good news as our predecessors did before us, they walked boldly into new lands and gave the message of our Messiah without any thought of the consequences to the flesh of their body. And I pray we may continue with the same boldness, spreading the good news of our Messiah Yahshua, so that all who are called may repent and grow to be like Him.

This is our June/July Issue of our Quarterly Newsletter. We apologize for the late issue, that we had hoped to have been out by the end of June. We postponed this letter partially due to news that happened at the beginning of July, and partially due to other reasons.

We send Blessings out to all our Brothers and Sisters in Rocheport, Frystown, Bethel, Cisco, Eaton Rapids, O’Fallon, Sterling, Georgia, and everywhere else, for all their dedication to our Fathers work, which we have learned so much from.

We thank you and bless you,
Yahweh be with You All.

A Sad Note

First of all I send a special thank you to my wonderful wife who has dedicated so much of her time in helping me to compile and complete all the newsletters that I have sent out so far. She has written many of her own articles and summaries so that I might have the materials to fill my letter, so thank you Stacy for your help and much appreciated support

Unfortunately it looks as if this is our last newsletter, for now anyway; I had hoped with all my heart that I could make this newsletter work. I so much enjoy committing my time and efforts to this paper to share news and ideas with our fellow believers, because I feel it is important to have this connection with other assemblies, but I am one person with many obstacles in my life right now, and cannot keep up with the paper on my own, so until I can figure out how to be more than one person, or somehow Yahweh blesses me with more help, I ask Yahweh to forgive me for my failure as I temporarily stop the press.

This really saddens me, because I feel there is a strong need for the families of Yahweh to know each other, and to communicate with each other. I feel this helps to unify different assemblies. So I ask that you please send your prayers that I may somehow overcome the obstacles and be able to continue these small newsletters again. Your Prayers are much welcomed and needed; I thank you in advanced and hope that I may continue the newsletter in the near future.

Yahweh bless you, and keep you.

"On The Shelf"

I need a purpose
 I need a reason
 I exist but what for?
 I feel worthless
 I feel so empty
 Inside me I need more.

(Chorus)
 I need to feel
 A life within me.
 I need to bare
 The fruit that you need.
 I need the chance
 To prove that I am
 Here for something bigger than myself
 You made this clay into a pot for a reason
 Just don't forget to take me off the shelf.

I need to believe
 I need some relief
 From this pain inside me.
 I feel impatient
 I feel time fading
 Desperate for anything.

(Repeat Chorus)

I need to do my part.
 I need fulfillment in my heart.
 I can't do it on my own.
 Let me know I'm not alone.
 Things will happen in time.
 I know then it will be right.
 Just help me to understand.
 In the meantime please hold my hand.

I need to feel
 Your life within me.
 I need to bare
 The fruit that you need.
 I need the chance
 To prove that I am
 Here for something greater than myself
 You made this clay into a pot for a reason
 Don't let me forget 'til You take me off the shelf.

This pot will wait forever.
 I know that You know better.
 That's why I know that You won't leave me on the shelf.

How do we, as believers, react to Homosexuals

Lev. 18:22, "You shall not lie with a male as one lies with a female; it is an abomination."

Lev. 20:13, "If there is a man who lies with a male as those who lie with a woman, both of them have committed a detestable act; they shall surely be put to death. Their blood-guiltiness is upon them"

1 Cor. 6:9-10, "Or do you not know that the unrighteous shall not inherit the kingdom of Elohim? Do not be deceived; neither fornicators, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor effeminate, nor homosexuals, 10: nor thieves, nor the covetous, nor drunkards, nor revilers, nor swindlers, shall inherit the kingdom of Elohim."

Rom. 1:26-28, "For this reason Yahweh gave them over to degrading passions; for their women exchanged the natural function for that which is unnatural, 27: and in the same way also the men abandoned the natural function of the woman and burned in their desire toward one another, men with men committing indecent acts and receiving in their own persons the due penalty of their error. 28: And just as they did not see fit to acknowledge Elohim any longer, Yahweh gave them over to a depraved mind, to do those things which are not proper".

Homosexuality is clearly condemned in the Scriptures, and also goes against our Creator's order and desire. Yahweh made Adam (a man) and Hāwawah (a woman) – to carry out his command to fill and subdue the world (Gen. 1:28). Homosexuality clearly cannot carry out this command. Therefore is against Yahweh's desire. And people who choose this lifestyle and disregard Yahweh's desire, to follow their own desires and lust, will believe what they are doing is ok; this is because Yahweh allows it since they have no love for the truth.

Unfortunately we live in a society that is being ruled by a liberal dogmatism that is being pushed along by the momentum of the liberal media Which has been successfully in getting homosexuality promoted in schools, on TV, and in movies as "normal" and healthy. But I assure you it is just the opposite.

Do we hate homosexuals?, of course not, We pray for them, that they come to realize the truth and repent of their sins, and follow Yahoshua. These people are still made in Elohim's image, even if they did choose to sin. We do not judge the person but however it is our duty as believers to judge the actions. For if we did not judge any actions we would therefore believe that all things are acceptable, thus saying it is acceptable in the Creator's eyes, and we know this is not so.

Do we accept their actions as ok, absolutely not, for then we too are guilty of their sins. So we are not to partake in their actions, nor do we condone their actions of sin, We need to teach them of Yahshua's Love and how he died for us to cover our sins, but if they choose to not stop sinning, then they are liable for their sins.

If we choose not to stop sinning then we are judged accordingly, even for the sins of others that we allow or accept into our lives as being OK or acceptable, for this sends a false message by teaching others that sins are accepted as OK, we will be accountable for these sins as well.

I truly believe that with the amount of sin in the world today, the Pornography, the homosexuality, the Pedophilia, the murdering, the stealing and lying, and many other despicable things, with many of these being taught as the norm or acceptable with the excuse of, it's just the way they were born, that this world has very little time before it is to receive the same punishment as Sodom and Gomorrah, So, as Yahweh's people, we desperately need to pray for those sinners so that as many as will turn from their sins, will, before punishment has been laid down and it is too late. And I urge everyone to teach their children the truth and do not let them fall into the snare of the Liberal teachings and of sinners, that practice these sins or condone them.

Ask Yahweh daily to strengthen you and protect you from these sins of the world.

Yahweh Bless all of you and keep you safe, healthy, prosperous and guarded. Let it be so.

HalleluYah!

IRON HORSE

Stepping through the large, weather-beaten door, it seems to be laughing at me, creaking open in the breeze. The stillness inside is almost eerie. The only movement is hay dust floating down from the loft, creating a hypnotic, diamond-like sparkle as it falls through the light that's piercing through the cracks in the wall. It's much like the twinkle of the stars on a clear autumn night. The moist air carries a bitter-sweet aroma. The recipe for this smell, my guess, is the mixture of damp hay, manure, and the floor of rich dark soil, a soil that has been a witness to the generations of my past.

Hiding in the far corner, like a child in a game of hide-and-seek, is the old iron horse. I step forward toward its rusty body revealing the multitude of scratches, dents, and tiny hand shaped mud prints. Memories start rolling through my mind, like a motion picture. I clearly see rodeo tractor pulls, autumn hay rides, and the many days of children climbing up and down happily as if playing on a small mountain. I remember the days of harvest, so many good times. Suddenly a rat shuffles across the floor shattering the screen before me, and I realize the lifeless dust covered body in front of me is but a tribute to the past, like a monument representing so much.

As I stand amidst the light drizzle of dust, something from above catches my eye. Wow! What a masterpiece. The most beautiful web I think I've ever seen, stretching some four feet between the large oak rafters and complimented by a cone shaped beam shooting through a knothole in the roof, it spotlights the large snare and brings it to a fantastic glow, resembling a well-displayed work of art in a museum. Now I can't seem to shake from my mind the many times I read Charlotte's Web to my children. Oh those smiling faces, the children enjoyed my reading, almost as much as climbing on that old iron horse.

A faint sprinkle on my face and the damp odor now settling on my taste buds sends chills down my spine. I'm now aware of the door behind me swinging in the wind, telling me to leave in its deep moaning voice. I won't argue but I glance back once more before stepping out, for one last look at the memorial inside.

PERFECTION

Perfection... practiced is achieved...dedicated is attained...diligent is realized. Never done is failure!

Our Abba Yah IS the ultimate perfection. We are to emulate, strive for his likeness. Orderly, purposeful, and without sin, the highest of standards, truth be told. Practiced in spirit/mind (emotions/thoughts), body (obvious ways), and soul (pure essence of eternal life, Yah willing). This obvious concept said, if we know things that are good but don't do them, perform the action(s) in a way which honors Yah's way (cool eh? Yahweh is MY way ☺), then we are not practicing to be perfect. We may NEVER be perfect, but we MUST ALWAYS strive to be!!!! I won't lie, this IS HARD!!!! The words always and never are here to be used importantly, otherwise I try not to use these two words.

if we are afraid to fail or be seen as imperfect and therefore don't try or PRACTICE, all the nice and good perfect thoughts DO NOT become fruitful actions. They become nothing, and nothing times nothing is still nothing, Sad but true. Life is not always fair or perfect, truth be known, but it is still worth living, you've got to take the good with the bad, if we knew no bad then I believe we would not appreciate the good as much when we do get a piece. We can't just quit because something doesn't go right, we just have to keep trying. We must do, try, re-do, re-try to show we truly wish to matter. To be, as a matter of fact, worthy of our Savior's selfless sacrifice. Don't procrastinate in choosing salvation; it is not to be thrown away or dismissed as insignificant or something to do later. Procrastination is an evil trick on us, disguising our limited time here on earth to matter. Make no mistake, choose we must and daily in fact. Salvation once attained is not locked in like some awesome interest rate on a loan. No. it is losable, and making bad choices, will have consequences.

Satan knows his time is growing short. Do you feel his desperation? How so much keeps coming against you when you plan or just think of a good work to do or a good word to say? All of a sudden your channel gets changed, you are distracted with a movie or a game, or other muse or some sort only to later have a fleeting thought of what you were going to do and then that thought that would have been nice gets drowned out by "oh well, maybe later" and BOOM! FOLKS THIS IS HOW SATAN THINKS HE'LL WIN!!!! We all know he loses but he won't stop until THE END passes and Yahweh starts us a new book, life, world, whatever it will be called with a new song to learn, new robes of white to wear, a new name to learn, a new place to live with Him forever and always for all eternity. At that point whatever Yah blesses us to know and be able to do living in such a beautiful place secure in the fact that there will be no sadness, no sickness, no evil, no pain, no bad to shadow His pure light, the one that will make sun light unnecessary, all the struggle to practice perfection will have been worth all we have gone through, trust me, better yet trust scripture, what He left for us, to guide us. Love yourself and others enough to not give up, it is this love that does make this old world go 'round my dears. Imagine the new city coming down, how beautiful!!!! No bad anything. We will be singing eternally in awesome company with our family of Yah, brother Yahshua smiling because those who made it DID practice over and over. Can you see it? I can, and I want that as my forever.

This is what pops into mind as I start to fail, and I take control again and strive to matter in a big way wishing to honor my Abba and Messiah. It is hard. For me, a woman, emotionally hard especially, that will not stop me,

Yah willing. I continually pray for strength and continually need more strength because it gets harder but I know He will NEVER give me more than I can handle and ALWAYS re-builds me stronger after a tear down, as He will you too. And I am glad he loves me enough to guide me, correct me, punish me when I am wrong, and bless me when I deserve it. (P.S. my 4th grandchild is arriving soon, 4 is my fav # and I look forward to more if Yah chooses to bless me so.) I love; LOVE and LIFE!!!! What gifts our Father give us!!! CHOICES are another gift, freedom to do so, don't squander it. Choose wisely please, think it out and choose wisely. This one life we are given to live, lived well, with purpose, on purpose, practicing perfection IS worth it at our times end. It is what you make it. He knows our hearts, yes, but He also demands actions, not just empty words. He IS THE jealous El as well as THE ultimate parent. When we are quiet and listen He is there, guiding us. Listening is the other half of conversation, and something to practice, those who know me know I need much practice at this half. ☺ I read recently this year in fact in scripture, once you are so far down the path of evil like perverseness, wicked acts like stealing, magic, adultery, same sex relations, lies, violence, and the list goes on, that eventually Yahweh will just let you go your way. I believe this is when people stop seeing wrong as wrong, they are blinded by Satan and lost, whether or not they return to Yah's way that is not the point. The blinders go on, call it desensitizing, or whatever, but a line is crossed and truth and righteousness becomes a grey area, not black or white. Luke warm occurs. Beware!!!! Satan has stepped up his game, SO MUST WE!!!! Be on the defense you all, your salvation is worth the fight and the win!!!! Remember, DON'T be afraid to try, practice, practice, and practice. No action = sure failure!!!! Try, and try harder, never stop!!!! May Yahweh strengthen you in all your efforts to practice perfection my brothers and sisters in Yahweh in the name of our Savior Yahshua Messiah this is prayed!!!!!!!!!!!!!!
